

BOARD GAME CONVENTION FUNDRAISER!

Have you ever wanted to attend a board game convention like SaltCon or TimpCon? We are hosting a FREE, ONE DAY "MiniCon" to raise money for Seth Case's 22-day Chinese study abroad trip.

Seth has been in the Chinese Dual Language Immersion program since he was 6 years old and can finally go study at Mingshin University in China!

Come learn to play these games from experienced gamers:

MLEM: Space Agency

A cute push-your-luck dice game where catstronauts battle to explore the cosmos before their rocket crashes.

Mysterium

Cooperative deduction game where you become psychic detectives and work to uncover a murder mystery.

River Valley Glassworks

Play as a woodland creature to form the best collection of river glass from the shifting river.

Onitama

A fast-paced, 2-player, abstract strategy game, often described as a simple, card-driven alternative to chess.

Crokinole

A tabletop dexterity game that mixes shuffleboard and curling into a fun, finger-flicking match.

Between Two Castles

Semi-cooperative tile-drafting game where you work with your neighbors to build the two best castles in the land of Mad King Ludwig.

Magic the Gathering

A strategic card game where players battle as wizards casting spells and summoning creatures from their deck of cards to overcome their opponents.

(Announced at convention)

Pro Dungeon Masters and Storytellers will be provided:

Dungeons & Dragons

A collaborative storytelling game where players create heroes and roll dice to overcome challenges and explore endless fantasy worlds guided by a Dungeon Master.

&

Blood on the Clocktower

A social deduction game of lies, logic, and murder where the good team tries to identify the demon and its minions. Everyone has a unique role and death is not the end...
